

SECOND TEST

PART I EXPLANATIONS (50 PERCENT TOTAL -- 5 MIN. EACH)

Explain the larger significance of FIVE (and only FIVE) of the following terms, as they have analyzed in our course readings and lectures. Write no more than a paragraph or two on each term, but be as thorough and, above all, as specific as you can in that space. Give names, dates, places, and any necessary background information. Given that several of these terms are very well-known names you probably learned in elementary school, please keep in mind that you will need to go beyond such general knowledge and describe the context and meaning of the term as we have interpreted them in this course

1. Glorious Revolution
2. John Hancock
3. John Locke
4. Walking Purchase
5. Quaker meetings
6. Pontiac's Rebellion
7. colonial assemblies
8. British Constitution
9. "moral sense"
10. William Penn

PART II SHORT ANSWERS (50 PERCENT TOTAL -- 10-15 MIN. EACH)

Answer TWO of the following questions in three or four paragraphs. Be as complete and specific as you can in that space. Show your reasoning and provide concrete examples, with names, dates and places where relevant.

1. Is it true that, as many Americans still believe, the Puritans of Massachusetts Bay moved here to gain religious freedom? What evidence is there against that idea?
2. What was the impact of the Seven Years War (French and Indian War) on the British government and its relationship with the North American colonies? How did the British and the colonies disagree over the legacy of the war?
3. What were the basic principles of the Enlightenment and how were they applied to at least two of the following areas: government, child-rearing, religion, the natural world, crime and punishment?
4. What evidence can be cited for the argument that the Middle Colonies presaged later American culture much more closely than Massachusetts or Virginia?
5. What were the key differences between the American colonists' view of their place in the British Empire, and the British government's view of their place?
6. How did the American colonists stop the Stamp Act? How complete was their victory?
